

Wellingtons Wednesdays
The Weakerthans

[Verse 1]

E B
F#m A
The night s a spill, a permanent stain; the city soaks in silence, salt and dirty snow
E B F#m A
A blue glow from the tv again, the curtains never open, faces never show
E B F#m
A
And every time a light is turned on there s a light that s turned off somewhere
E B
F#m A
For every moment that s lost there s a perfect cost, there s a debt you can t share

F#m B E A
F#m B
Clocks stopped at the corner of Albert will show your last bus left an hour ago
E B F#m A E B F#m
A
so stumble down the stairs again, pretend you re not too proud
E B F#m A F#m A
to understand and still know when your voice cuts through the crowd
E A E A
that lonely people talk too loud

[Verse 2]

E B
F#m A
The night s a spill, a permanent stain; the city soaks in silence, salt and dirty snow
E B F#m A
A blue glow from the tv again, the curtains never open, faces never show
E B F#m A
And every night they play the same song to the same offbeat believers
E B
F#m A
And everyone is singing along wearing blueblack eyes, wearing dead men s neck-ties

F#m B E A
F#m B

Clocks stopped at the corner of Albert will show your last bus left an hour ago

E B F#m A E B F#m A so stumble down the stairs again, pretend you re not too proud
E B F#m A F#m A
to understand and still know when your voice cuts through the crowd
E A E A
that lonely people talk too loud

[Bridge]

G#m A
Numbers on a washroom stall
G#m F#m A
There s always more then one last call calling you

[Instrumental]

E G#m A B E G#m A B

[Outro]

E G#m A
Or you got blue eyes, or you got green eyes, or you got grey eyes
E G#m A B
Or you got blue eyes, or you got green eyes, or you got grey eyes
E G#m A
Or you got blue eyes, or you got green eyes, or you got grey eyes
E G#m A
Or you got blue eyes, or you got green eyes, or you got grey eyes
