Intro: E

Verse:

```
E
You may talk about the ladies
The ladies of your own
G                                E
These boweevils theyâ€™ll rub you up at home
                                B
They all looking for a home
                                E
They all looking for a home
The first time I seen a bo weevil
He was sitting on the stair
G
The next time I seen a boweevil
He had his own family there
They all looking for a home
                                E
They all looking for a home

They all looking for a home
They all looking for a home
They all looking for a home
They all looking for a home

The farmer he took the boweevil
```

And put him on the ice
The boweevil said to the farmer
You treat me mighty nice
They all looking for a home
They all looking for a home

Alright
They all looking for a home
They all looking for a home
They all looking for a home
They all looking for a home

Alright now this next song
Is about myself and when im done I hope
Youâ€™ll all sing along with me on hes
Looking for a home

I said if anybody asks you people
You sang you this song
You tell em its jackie white
Hes just been here and gone
They all looking for a home
They all looking for a home

Alright
They all looking for a home
They all looking for a home
They all looking for a home
They all looking for a home
