Put the Money Down
The Who
Intro: E / A / | E / D A | E / A / | E / D A | x2
                   [2nd time: I got lost in the . . . ]
VERSE I:
[I got lost in the] back-streets
Trying to get here tonight
             Α
                     E
The police were asking questions
                     E
               Α
They took me to the wrong place twice
                   Α
I even lost my passport
              Α7
                       D(A)*
And I forgot my name and town
    A7
But now I m here by the water
           G
                D(F#)
                                      C
                               D
Put the money down
                                      E
Before I walk on the water
                    F#m G#m A
Put the money down, down, down
                   D(F#) E
There are bands killing chickens
                       F#m G#m A
My heros getting pushed around, round, round
                                D(F#)
                         G
I don t know if I trust you
                          D(A)*
                  Α7
As you try to shoot me down
Α7
                                 E
Before I walk on the water
                    F#m G#m A
Put the money down, down, down
              G
                   D(F#) C(\mathbf{E})
Put the money down.

BRIDGE:
 Twas a beautiful day in Columbus when the fences fell
But the five loaves and fishes ain t gonna be much help
```

I ve got a hungry juggler here who wants to keep ahead

Before he walks the water, he wants his bread.

```

                           [ Take a glass of that . . . ]
VERSE II:
[Take a glass of that] nice brown ale
And a purple pill
If the ale don t get you too
         E A
E A
Sure as hell the pill will
E A
                   E A
Oh mummy mummy
E A7
              D(A)*
Please may I go down town
