{VERSE}

C G
Outside the house Mr. Simpson announced
C G
That Sally couldn't go to the meeting.
C G
He went on cleaning his blue Rolls Royce,
C G
And she ran inside a-weeping.
C G
She got to her room and tears splashed the picture
C G
Of her new messiah.
C G
She picked up a book of her father's life and
C G G/C G G
Threw it on the fire.

{Chorus}

F
She knew from the start, deep down in her heart
G G/C G G/C G G
That she and Tommy were worlds apart.
F C
But her mother said, Never mind, your part is to
D G G/C
Be what you'll be.

The theme of the sermon was Come unto me and love will find a way.
So Sally decided to ignore her dad and sneak out anyway.
She spent all afternoon getting ready and decided she'd try to touch him.
Maybe he'd see that she was free and talk to her this Sunday.

{repeat Chorus}

She arrived at six and the place was swingin' to gospel music by nine.
Group after group appeared on the stage and Sally just sat there cryin'.
She bit her nails looking pretty as a picture right in the very front row.
Then a D.J. wearin' a blazer with a badge ran on and said, Here we go!

Crowd back in a rage.

Soon the atmosphere was cooler and Tommy gave a lesson.

Sally just had to let him know she loved him and leapt up on the rostrum.

She ran across the stage to the spotlight figure and brushed him on the face.

Tommy whirled round as a uniformed man threw her off the stage.

{Repeat Chorus}

Her cheek hit a chair and blood trickled down, mingling with her tears.

Tommy carried on preaching and his voice filled Sally's ears.

She caught his eye. She had to try, but he couldn't see through the lights.

Her face was gashed and the ambulance men had to carry her out that night.

Gash across her face.

Ooooh.

Sixteen stitches put her right and her dad said, Don't say I didn't warn ya!

Sally got married to a rock musician she met in California.

Tommy always talks about the day the disciples all went wild.

Sally still carries a scar on her cheek to remind her of his smile.
