

Too Much Of Anything
The Who

(intro) A A4 A A4 D D A A4

A A4 A A4
I think these hands have felt a lot,
D A A4
I don t know, what have I touched,
A A4 A A4
I think these eyes have seen a lot,
D A A4
I don t know, maybe they ve seen too much.

D G D
I think this brain has thought a lot,
A A4 A A4
Searching, trying to find the crutch,
A A4 A A4
I think this heart has bled once too often,
D A A4
This time it s bled a bit too much.

D A E A
Too much of anything, is too much for me,
D G D A A4
Too much of everything gets too much for me.

A A4 A A4
I can t remember before 49,
D A A4
But I know that 48 was there,
A A4 A A4
My ears let in what I should speak out,
D A A4
Hmmm, there s something in the air.

D G D
I ve overloaded on my way,
A A4 A A4
Bye, bye, you better keep in touch.
A A4 A A4
Think your ears hear a whole lot of music,
D A A4
And like me they ve caught a bit too much.

D A E A
Too much of anything, is too much for me,
D G D A A4
Too much of everything gets too much for me.

B B4 B B4
I think these hands have felt a lot,
E B B4
I don t know, what have I touched,
B B4 B B4
I think these eyes have seen a lot,
E B B4
I don t know, maybe they ve seen too much.

E A E
I think this brain has thought a lot,
B B4 B B4
Oh, searching, trying to find the crutch,
B B4 B B4
I think this heart has bled once too often,
E B B4
This time it s bled a bit too much.

E B F# B
Too much of anything, is too much for me,
E A E
Too much of everything gets too much for me.

(solo base) B B4 B B4 E E B