Now And Forever
By: The Wild Swans

Intro: A E D A

A E A
D
You haven't washed your face in days and your cotton shirt is holy
A E A
D
You used to live your life so fast now you find the days drag slowly
A E A D
The only one that you adore turns your woman iceberg blue
A E A D
You blame it on the bottle now, boy has this town crippled you
A D A D
No gulls flying, no fishes swimming
A D A
Just lowered voice and fallen women

A E A D
It's cold at the sailor's rest and your king of all that's lowly
A E A
D
You're praying on a phantom check and the river's smiling coldly
A E A
D
You want the life you can't afford after all that you've been through
A E A D
Soon it will be over, boy has this town crippled you

A D A D
No gulls flying, no fishes swimming
A D A
Just lowered voice and fallen women

A D A D
Man and baby and storm cloud weather
A D A D
Who counts your blessings, now and forever

Guitar riff: A E D A

A D A D
No gulls flying, no fishes swimming
A D A
Just lowered voice and fallen women
A D A D

Man and baby and storm cloud weather
