

I Wont Say The Lords Prayer
The Wonder Years

I like to play this in D# standard, capo on 2nd fret. Feel free to criticize and correct, I m open to it, as I m not sure about these, so please correct if need be.

C
It s a series of bars thrift stores and churches lining the streets
Am Gm F
While women with gold crosses push kids into half-formed beliefs
And if Lot was righteous, I think I d rather not be
Am Gm F
We lean on fences built from outdated morality
C
It s a gang mentality, it s a dangerous thing
Am Gm F
They don t ask you to think, just to repeat after me
And assume you re too careless to look at it critically
Am Gm F
You ll stop progress if it contradicts what you re told to believe

B5 A5 C B5
I refuse to spend life on my knees

These billboards that flaunt these scared tactics
Am Gm F
Make me think you re only good if you re afraid of being punished
C
Every single Sunday, church bells wake me up
Am Gm F
But it s never enough to pull me out of bed

C
The church on Main Street has got its doors painted red
Am Gm F
And I guess it s so the Angel of Death passes over it on its way to get gas
C
The church over on Broad Street has got a neon sign that says Jesus Save Me
Am Gm F
And I guess it s so God can see from where he is in the cheap seats
