My Oh My  The Wreckers

C

This concrete road used to just be dirt We d drive out here after work
Bb C

Every Friday night when $I$ was eighteen

C

This parking lot used to be a field parked here in my Oldsmobile

Long before the Sonic and the Walgreens

C

Times have changed and so have I
$\mathbf{B b} \quad \mathbf{F} \quad \mathbf{C}$
Now I have these bittersweet memories

C
Songs were long and gas was cheap cell phones and water was free

I once was young and starry-eyed

Daddy paid and I never had to worry
