Infinity
The xx

[Verse 1]
```
Bbm                                G#
After all the time, after you
                                    Eb
Had you seen me with someone new?

Hanging so high for your return
                          Bbm
But the stillness is a burn
                        G#
Had I seen it in your eyes
                                Eb
There d have been no try after try

Your leaving had no goodbye
                            Bbm
Had I just seen one in your eyes
```

[Chorus]
G# - Eb
```
                  Bbm
I can t give it up
                    G#
To someone else s touch
                      Eb
Because I care too much
                Bbm
I can t give it up
                    G#
To someone else s touch
                      Eb
Because I care too much
Care too much
Care too much
```
