Say Something Loving
The xx

  F                    G
Before it slips away

( C   F   G )

C  F  G                    Gadd9  G
     Say something loving
C             F             G          Gadd9  G
I just don t remember the thrill of affection
C             F        G                Gadd9  G
I just don t remember, say something loving
C           F          G               G6
I need a reminder the feeling s escaped me

( C   F )

       G                        F
I went looking for it, could have been anyone s kiss
            G                        F
Throwing my arms at no-one, when I gave up I found love
          G                              F
The thought flows through my mind, and it s growing all the time
       G                         F
I do myself a disservice, to feel this weak, to be this nervous

   G                      Gadd9  G
You say something loving
C           F              G          Gadd9  G
It s so overwhelming, the thrill of affection
C          F        G                  Gadd9  G
Feels so unfamiliar, you say something loving
C          F           G          Gadd9  G
Without hesitation it hits me, hits me
   C           F     G
It feels so unfamiliar

  F
Before it slips away

        G                        F
Your touch stays on my skin, I feel it start sinking in
          G                          F
Here come my insecurities, I almost expect you to leave
       G                           F
Were you really looking for me, try your best to reassure me
       G                        F
I wasn t patient to meet you, am I too needy, am I too eager

         G                                                        F
I don t know, I don t know, I don t know, I don t know what this is but it doesn
t feel wrong
           G                                                      F
I don t know, I don t know, I don t know, I don t know what this is but it doesn
t feel wrong

F                          G/B
  Did you hear me say it,    say it
G                   Fmaj7
  Did you hear me say

  G                    Gadd9  G
I say something loving
C               F                   G         Gadd9  G
I can t hold it inside, the thrill of affection
   C          F        G                   Gadd9   G
Is only getting stronger, I say something loving
C         F          G          Gadd9  G
All my hesitations are fading, fading
   C            F     G
I feel it taking over

  Am               F  G                        Am  F  G
Before it slips away,   don t let it slip away
  Am               F  G                        Am   F
Before it slips away,   don t let it slip away
