

I Wish You Would
The Yardbirds

I Wish You Would:The Yardbirds.
Debut single in 1964 but didn t chart.
On album - For Your Love - in 1965.
Album made the charts at #96.

These aren t the original lyrics and are group s interpretation.

INTRO: RIFF: played all the way through. All in G until interlude. Switches to F, then back to G. Watch/listen to YouTube version.

```

-----|
-----|
----0---0---0-0-0-----0-----|
-----3-----3-3-----|
-----|
----3-----|

```

#1.
G
Early in the morning, bout the break of day..

that s when my baby went away.

Come on now, baby, I wish you would..

You know, pretty baby, I love you so good.

#2.
G
Come on now, baby what you tryin to do?
Trying to love me and some other man, too.

Come on now, baby, I love you so.

You know, pretty baby, I hate to see you go.

CHORUS:
G
All my life..I want to hold you..in my arms..
F G
all night..(INTERLUDE:HARMONICA:)

```

-----|
-----|

```

-----0---0-----0-0-----0-----|
-----3-----3-3-----
-----3-----|

#3.

G

Early in the morning, bout the break of day..

that s when my baby went away.

Come on now, baby, I wish you would..

You know, pretty baby, I love you so good.

#4.

G

Come on now, baby what you tryin to do?

Trying to love me and some other man, too.

Come on now, baby, I love you so.

You know, pretty baby, I hate to see you go.

OUTRO:

G

All my life..I want to hold you..in my arms..

F G

all night..

A sixties smash from Kraziekhat.