

Shapes Of Things
The Yardsbirds

A G A
Shapes, of things before my eyes,
G A
Just teach me to despise.

G
Will time make men more wise?

A G A
Here within my lonely frame,
G A
My eyes just hurt my brain.

G
But will it seem the same?

D C
Come tomorrow, will I be older?

D C
Come tomorrow, may be a soldier.

D C E
Come tomorrow, may I be bolder than today?

A G A
Now, the trees are almost green.

G A
But will they still be seen?

G
When time and tide have been.

A G A
Fall, into your passing hands.

G A
Please don't destroy these lands.

G
Don't make them desert sands.

D C
Come tomorrow, will I be older?

D C
Come tomorrow, may be a soldier.

D C E
Come tomorrow, may I be bolder than today?

Soon, I hope that I will find,

G A

Thoughts deep within my mind.

G A

That won't disgrace my kind.
