```

Em           D
I can see her
C           D
She canâ€™t see me
      Em           D
Oh no, no she canâ€™t know
C           D
Just where Iâ€™ll be
      G           D           Em           B
See the sun kiss her skin as I sit up in this tree
C           D           Em
And we will watch her all day long, my telescope and me

```

```

Em C Em D G           B
Mr. Galileo, thank you for what youâ€™ve done
      Em           D C C           B
Without you Galileo, it wouldnâ€™t be much fun

```

```

Em           D C           D
I can see her, deep in the night
      Em           D C           D
See her shape on the blind, against the light
G           D           Em           B
And I look in her room as she moves restlessly
C           D           Em
And we will watch her all night long, my telescope and me

```

```

Em C Em D G           B
Mr. Galileo, thank you for what youâ€™ve done
      Em           D C C           B
Without you Galileo, it wouldnâ€™t be much fun

```

Em            D    C    D
I can watch her, everyday

Em            D    C    D
Every time I can hide, so far away

G            D                    Em                    B
Though I know I love her, don't think she would love me

C                                    D                                    Em
And we will watch her all day long, my telescope and me
