A A G D

[Verse 1]

A G D
I caught your teardrops with my shoulder when you cried
A G D
I called in sick so I could comfort you all night
A G D
Now you've got cold feet, well just let me break the ice
A G D G D
I did your laundry and I folded it real nice
A
So, baby, why?

[Chorus]

A
(I put in the hard work)
G D
Now I'm defeated, face down in the dirt
A
(I put in the hard work)
G D
And I can't seem to climb out of this hurt
A
(I put in the hard work)
G D
If it's true that you get what you deserve
A
(I put in the hard work)
G D
Then why? (I put in the hard work)

[Verse 2]

A G D
I held your hair back when you had too much to drink
A G D
I used my bare hands to unclog that bathroom sink
A G D
When you got de-pressed and your mind was on the blink
A G D G D
I peeled you off the floor and drove you to a shrink

[Chorus]

C'mon, baby, why? (I put in the hard work)

Now I'm defeated, face down in the dirt

A

I know it's painful to become a butterfly

A G D

You have to break yourself before your wings can fly

But still, I wonder when I look up at the sky
