

Bethlehem
Theocracy

I used CowManJones version and added and changed some Chords.
It should sound quite good, although I can't completely guarantee for accuracy.
The original song seems to be played like this in Half-Step-Down-Tuning.

If you like it, check out my GP5 Acoustic Version including Vocals!

Have fun :)

Intro like one Verse

Verse 1:

Em D
All my life, I've waited and watched through the eyes of faith
Em C D Em
To see the consolation of Israel
Em D
And even though the flame of my life is now growing dim
Em C D Em
I know I'll see the Savior of Israel
G D
For the Spirit of the Lord has promised unto me
G C D Em
That I would not see death before my eyes have seen Him
G D
The promise is alive, for through this little child
G C D Em
God's holy light illuminates Jerusalem
