I'd like to see you go.

I see BLU underwater next to you.
F Am Bb
The Seven seas don't have a clue of where to hide someone like you.

I love the deep end, it holds me so much closer.
Bb F
I'm drowning in the flood I know as you

Was it you caught my attention?
Was it you showed your face anywhere but here?
I'd like to see you go.

I see BLU underwater next to you.
The Seven seas don't have a clue of where to hide someone like you.
I see BLU underwater next to you.
Every wave brings me bad news, news.

G Gm
I'm scaling half the ocean, burying your name,
G Gm

But I found the seas all frozen after coming all this way.

I See BLU underwater next to you.

The Seven seas don t have a clue of where to hide someone like you.

I See BLU underwater next to you.

Every wave brings me bad news, news.
