Verse 1:

G Bm
While they were staring at the Citgo sign F# Bm
is where they lost our trail
G Bm
they thought we were part of a caravan F# G
but we had other plans

Chorus:

Bm
You can t catch me where I m gonna fall

you can t catch me where I ll hide

this earth s too cold - this Nova rolls
G F# Bm
I m moving to the sun

Brige:(spaced out organ bits and bassline comes in again)

Verse 2:

Ninety-three miles and a million more quite a trip we ve planned I must drive now, carefully and figure where we ll land

Chorus:

You can t catch me where I m gonna fall
you can t catch me where I ll hide
this earth s too cold so I m gonna run
I m moving to the sun
