Verse 1:

E A E A
Back in High School I knew a girl
E A E A
Not too simple and not too kind
E A
We both grew up,
E A
But I heard she changed
E A
From a new wave fan
E A
too another kind

Chorus 1:

She thinks she's Edith Head
But you might know she's not
The accent in her speech
She didn't have growing up
She thinks she's Edith Head
Or Helen Gurley Brown
Or some other cultural figure
We don't know a lot about

Verse 2:

It's been years since I moved away
But at Christmas I'd come home
And I saw her reflection

In the window of a store
She was talking to herself
Not too simple and not too kind
I walked on by
It was complicated
And it stuck in my mind

Chorus 2:

She thinks she s Edith Head
But you might know she s not
The accent in her speech
She didn t have growing up
The accent in her speech
She didn t have growing up
The accent in her speech
She didn t have growing up

Outro Chorus: ( Crazy Part )

She thinks she s Edith Head
She thinks she s Edith Head now
She thinks she s Edith Head
She thinks she s Edith Head now
( AHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH )
She thinks she s Edith Head
She thinks she s Edith Head now
She thinks she s Edith Head
She thinks she s Edith Head now
One more! One more! Go!
SHE S LOST HER MIND!

Let s listen!
