Chords throughout song: A " A " G " D

I don't know the name for A* but this is how I play it:

To go from A to A*, just move pointer finger from D string to E and hammer your pinky on B string at the third fret (listen to song for timing)

This is my first tab so please let me know if you think I got it right. This song is amazing I saw it live last night it was unbelievable.
