

Monotovs Private Opera
Third Eye Blind

[Verse]

G Am
Every moment of your life
C C
Is a chance to get it right
G
Any moment you ve been living in
D C
You could turn it on like a light
G Am
All the weight of the years
C
Has got me burstin into tears
G
Standin here with nothin
D C
I stand alone inside my fears

[Pre-Chorus]

Am G
Like an atom reveals a deeper state
Am
Well I swear for me tonight
C
It s not too late
G
To tell you baby
D C
It s you and only you and no one else
G
And I ll mean it
D C
Even when I m talking to myself
G D C
I said maybe, it s you and only you and no one else

G Am
How I miss Moscow
C
Those people really know
G
How to have a good time
D C
In a mixed up state of mind
Am G

And Monotov s Private Opera is closed

Am

So I guess I ll go home now

C

Cause there s no wheres else to go

G

And I will tell you baby

D

C

It s you and only you and no one else

G

And I will mean it

C

Even when I m talking to myself

G

C

I said baby, it s you and only you and no one else

Am

You and no one else

G

Now I m stuck inside a poem

Am

And then I m walkin by myself

G

In the dark, all alone

Am

And these actors and dramatists

C

They won t send me home

G

Am

Well, maybe I m like my father

C

Strung out on something or another

G

Held to a standard

C

We were always sinking under

G

Am

And maybe I m like my mother

C

She shattered cause no one loved her

G

C

Maybe I, Maybe I am like no other

Am

G

And some moments are more real than the books I ve read

Am

G

And a good woman, maybe she meant what she said
