This is my first song to tab so it may not be a 100% correct. This only about 3/4 of the song. The piano solo is not included. Email me if there are any corrections to be made.

Thanks and enjoy!

G#m Ebm
I see so little time

And I guess it s a might

With a light that you fight

You turn a blind eye

To the world in the sky

I didn't know in your lies

Above your head you hold so high
B Ebm E

A dream for the passers-by

My eyes are wasted here tonight

I never tried to get across the feeling
