

Welcome To The Masquerade
Thousand Foot Krutch

This is my first submission, but I m pretty confident these are all the right chords!

Standard E tuning. If you want to play along with the riff, you can just camp out on the Bm chord. Enjoy! It s a great song!

Welcome to the Masquerade

Bm

Weâ€™ve got the fire, whoâ€™s got the matches?

G

A

Take a look around at the sea of masks

Bm

And come one, come all, welcome to the Grand Ball,

G

Where the strong run for cover,

A

And the weak stand tall

Bm

Iâ€™m not one to scatter ashes,

F#

But thereâ€™s some things thatâ€™ll,

Melt the plastic

A

E G F#

Try and dig down deeper, if you can..

Bm

G

Iâ€™m not afraid, Iâ€™m not ashamed,

A

Iâ€™m not to blame,

F#

Welcome to the masquerade

Bm

G

Iâ€™m not ashamed, Iâ€™m not afraid,

A

Iâ€™m not OK,

F#

Welcome to the masquerade

Bm

Weâ€™ve got the power,

Whoâ€™s got the action?

G

Break it down till thereâ€™s nothinâ€™

A

But a mere fraction

Bm

Out of the fire,

Rise from the ashes,

G

Re-ject ..ya doubt,

A

And ..re-lease the passion

Bm

Letâ€™s get on it,

Believe, if you want it,

G

Step into the realm,

A

Where the real oneâ€™s flaunt it

Bm

Come, back, re-wind,

Another time on it,

G

Reach out, take that,

A

One off, step on it
