G, D, D#
bent and broken lying on the floor words weren t spoken, taunting even more run away from all the pain it caused don t look back pretending to be lost

A#, D, G, D#, F
i know it s hard to find yourself in a world that s unforgiving, unforgiving
i know you seem alone out there take my hand and keep believing, keep believing i set you free from your darkest dreams follow me and in my light you ll see hold your head up high above the water downing s easy, livings is what s harder.

i know you seem alone out there take my hand and keep believing, just keep believing

believing

3x verse is played then once chorus slower+ quieter

harmony
i know it s hard to find yourself in a world that s unforgiving, unforgiving
believing
