

The Lion And The Wolf
Thrice

Am Dm E7 Am
The lion s outside of your door, the wolf s in your bed.
Am Dm E7 Am
The lion s claws are sharpened for war, the wolf s teeth are red.
Dm C Fm Am
What a monstrous sight he makes mocking man s best friend.
Dm C Fm E7
Both the wolf and lion crave the same thing in the end.
Am Dm E7 Am
The lion s outside of your door, the wolf s in your bed.

Repeat for interlude and second verse.

Am Dm E7 Am
The wolf he howls, the lion does roar the wolf lets him in.
Am Dm E7 Am
The lion runs in through the door, the real fun begins.
Dm C Fm Am
A stable thrash upon you will rip open your flesh.
Dm C Fm E7
The lion eats his fill and then the wolf cleans up the mess.
Am Dm E7 Am
The lion s outside of your door, the wolf s in your bed.
Am Dm E7 Am
The lion s outside of your door, the wolf s in your bed.