Basic Chord Progression

[Em G D]

[Christina Aguilera]

Em

Everyone thinks that I have it all

D

G

But it s so empty living behind these castle walls

These castle walls

Em

If I should tumble if I should fall

G

Would any one hear me screaming behind these castle walls

There s no-one here at all, behind these castle walls

Same progression continues throughout the entire song.

Rest of the lyrics

[T.I.]

Observing the estate through the gate from the outside looking in

Bet you would think I got it made, better look again

I got buttler, got a maid, and a mansion

The belief is that I m living out a millionaires fantasy

With pantoms and ferrari s in the driveway

But you see the pain and the change of the same man s

Your vision jaded by the grammy s on the mantelpiece

Just switch your camera lenses you would see the agony

Apparantly it s damaging the man you see before you

On the canvas he may seem alright but all the diasadvantages his family

Encounters overpowers his extravagance

Walk in my? I dare you

While it really seem like the kings life aint glamorous

As seen through the eyes of untrained amateurs

Because the camera s don t see beyond the walls of the smiles

Only counts until it falls in the pile

[Christina Aguilera]

Everyone thinks that I have it all
But it s so empty living behind these castle walls
These castle walls
If I should tumble if I should fall
Would any one hear me screaming behind these castle walls
There s no-one here at all, behind these castle walls

[T.I.]

Honestly to me, I think I d lose every benefit of all that I ve accomplished
If my key is never with it, sh-t
Me knowing this, why should the verses I have laid
Be more important to me than the persons I have raised
I guess I m saying that to say that ooportunity
But they just don t equate to all the time they take away
From the kids all the sh-t I did right is a mistake
If deyjah end up a stripper and major slinging yay
How could I ever consider myself a great
If messiah ain t paid and nique nique ain t straight
Would your favourite song about the whips, money and sh-t
Be relevant if you found out, the money wasn t real, nope
So me being the goat shouldn t mean more to me
Than see it to a king though
From a bad ass kid to man with some dough
Otherwise I may well have stayed poor
So while they stay focused on me beefin with flip,
Shawty low, gucci or ludacris
Or if I m f-cking with a hoe
Did I snitch when I got arrested or will I die over nonsense
Internally I m dealing with this conflict
So excuse me if I don t get the chance to kiss the hand
Or slap me in the face, ay I, m just the man
If they saying I ain t the best at making hit records
It s cause this my life these ain t just rapping
Sh-t, you think of that deep, did ya dawg
See you can t see the castle through the walls till it falls
Bitch ain t thinking with the deep, did ya dog
Cause see you can t see the castle through the walls till it falls

[Christina Aguilera]

Everyone thinks that I have it all
But it s so empty living behind these castle walls
These castle walls
If I should tumble if I should fall
Would any one hear me screaming behind these castle walls
There s no-one here at all, behind these castle walls

[Christina Aguilera]

Nobody knows I m all alone
Living in this castle made of stone
They say that money is freedom but I feel trapped inside it all
And while I sit so high up on a throne
I wonder how I can feel this low
On top of the world it s beautiful

But there s no place to fall

[T.I.]

For the record ay, I give a damn if I never said sh-t again
My career was meant for me to come and tell it
Honest interpretation of how affected I m faced with Matters most rappers used to keep locked away in the basement
The day that I walk I ain t saying that I m amazing
Down playing the way I keep fellas from catching cases
Won t take into consideration how much it mean what I m saying
And when I say what I mean even when I m sorrounded by the fakers
From one of the greatest centers, blessed with most of god s graces
Who made his way amongst the greatest from the grimiest places
So next time you rating royalty, I m always being given to recordings than the level
Of your loyalty, obvious you ve been ignoring me
Who else ya seen make it through the storm, unharmed disjointed
While all the critics was looking for prince charming
Disregarded the king of the south raised doubt
Even though he made a castle out of used to be a house
He did sh-t that all your favourites rappers only rap about
But most of y all don t see the castle through the walls
And the smiles till it falls in piles so while...

[C.A.]
