

The Red Of The Morning Sun
Tiamat

Tiamat - The Red of the Morning Sun
From the album The Scarred People

Intro: Dm

Dm Bb Dm
I woke up early this morning when the columns of night went pale white
Dm Bb Dm
The shades of faith disappeared and the sky above you were no longer blue

A Dm
When did our moon cease to bleed
A Dm
When shall the colours be freed
Bb Dm
To bring back our gold and to bring back the red of the sun
Bb Dm
To bring back our gold and to bring back the red of the sun
Bb Dm
The red of the morning sun

Dm
One part of crystal oxygen
Dm
Two parts of glycerine
Dm
Three parts of cold spring water
Dm
To bring back the four river daughters
Dm
Five steps out of the black room
Dm
With six six six of gloom, leaving
Dm
Seven sea shells on the shore
Dm
Whisper eight nine ten and I wanna hear more

Dm Bb Dm
I looked through the prism when colour went away and faded into grey
Dm Bb Dm
And the sun was still shining in the morning but pale white, so white

A Dm
When did our moon cease to bleed
A Dm
When shall the colours be freed

Is this all we get?

Is this all we get?

Is this all we get?

Is this all there is?

Is this all there is?
