She struts up to me

Am

She whispers my name as if I know her

F

But I never knew her (I never knew her)

C

She asks me the time

Am

A quarter to one, we go for a drive

F

I just don't know her

Am

On the coldest night

F

In the darkest room

C

I will sleep alone

G

Cause it's better than you, yeah, it's better than you.

Am

You can't play me like that

It's a matter of fact

F

You're nothing more, than a typical whore

C

G

And I won't be your fool, anymore

C

We go to her house

Am

Flip on the tele, and lie on the couch

F (stop playing once you hit anymore)
But I don't feel her, anymore

C
She asks me to bed

Am
This is the end of my disenchantment

F
Now that I'm walking out the door

Am
On the coldest night

F
In the darkest room

C
I will sleep alone

G
Cause it's better than you, yeah, it's better than you.

Am
You can't play me like that

It's a matter of fact

F
You're nothing more, than a typical whore

C G
And I won't be your fool, anymore

Am
Maybe someday you'll get it

Perhaps you'll regret it

F
Or maybe you'll find someone else to accept it

C G
I won't be the one.

[Solo]

Am
You can play me like that

It's a matter of fact
