

Still Pretending
Tift Merritt

VERSE I

D            A                    G
Hear you comin up the driveway
D            A                    G
I tie a ribbon in my hair
A                                  G
Look who s come to see me
E                                  A
Funny, you always end up here

Refrão -----

                 G   A            D                                  G   A   D
But it s still pretending, and it s still wrong
                 G            A            D            A   G                    A                    D
And I still can t tell my heart, why I m still alone
-----

VERSE II

D            A                                  G
Well, I guess I m s posed to lock you out
D            A                                  G
Well, I guess I m s posed to play it tough
A                                  G
But I see how you look at me
E                                  D
Baby, it always is enough

CHORUS

BRIDGE

A
Barefoot in the kitchen laughin
E
Till you leave, and I ll be crying
F#m
Inside the door I close behind you
G                                  A
Wishin you would stay

CHORUS

G A D

G A D

But we re still pretending, and we re still wrong (so wrong)

G A D A G

A D

And I still can t tell my heart, why I m still alone

G A D

Oh, tell me why I m still alone

G A D D6

Oh, oh, why I m still alone