This song is very simple when you get the timing and rhythym down. I watched Nick 13 play this song so I am pretty damn sure the tabs are accurate. This version is in standard tunning; it can also be played in C Em F and G or B D#m E F#; it s played the way I tabbed it though. The solos are easy when you get the slight double picking heard in the song, Nick 13 plays very simple progressions for his solos but still makes it sound cool the way Luther Perkins did for Johnny Cash. I ll shut up now and let you play. Questions or commets E-mail me at Mothra_82@hotmail.com
