Tabbed by: Mean Mr Mustard

Tuning: Standard

So I kinda figured this one out and figured I would post it. Its really not hard at all and uses pretty simple chords. The main thing is timing, its written weird in order to correspond with the lyrics, but if you listen to the song, you ll get it down.

INTRO/VERSE:

Am G C G
I felt alive for the first time in years
Am G C G
The night I destroyed what was keeping me here.
Am G C G
Ours were the hands that broke the chain with Am G Dm
nothing to gain.

BRIDGE:

Am G
For kids who hate each other,
Am G
this is a good place to live.
Am G
A clean stove, wood floors,

A place that I would call home.

Am G
I can tell that you re bored.
Am G
Let go trashed floors.
Am G F (Let Ring Out four bars x 2)
I wish I never came home.
