Prossers Gabriel Tim Barry G Does anyone know the name Gabriel Prosser? G My conscience says heâ \in ^{ms} the one that history missed. A blacksmith by trade up at Brookfield Plantation, A Henrico County slave born of owner Thomas. If you listen closely you'll hear the words perfect, The Caribbean uprising caught fire in this land. Up and down the James River, Pamunky and Appomattox, Tobacco soil gone bad deferred a movement for the blacks. G Nine years before, down in Santo Domingo, G Slaves refused to submit and took the right of all men. G Virginia whites got nervous and hired more militias, As blacks inspired, plotted and passed on their plans. Mister Prosser's Gabriel was smart as he was strong, A head of keloid scars and a mind of knowing right and wrong. Voted general at twenty-four in the year of eighteen-hundred,

Haunted by the hymns and wailing of his fellow slaves.
