tuning: standard, no capo

This is a great song from Barry s latest record 28th & Stonewall. Hope you enjoy the chords, I guess they re correct so far.

Intro:

F G C F
C G F C (Play these chords by plucking the E or A string, followed by the two or three thinner strings, anyway listen to the song to get this right, it s pretty easy.)

Verse:

C Am
This morning I woke up fucking hating
F C
this whole damn town and the sight of your house
C Am
Rigged up with insulin all flowing
G
I left without a sound
F G C G Am
Just like I said I expect no apologies I ve had a grip on our longevity
F G F C
But I m losing count as you add up doubts and challenge all that s said
C Am
I walked and walked and finally found it
F C
When comfort s strong interest wears
C Am
No I ain t snapped no I ain t broken
G
I just don t think I care
F G C

I drew no response when asked if I come second best so I won't waste my time on thoughts of loneliness
It'll be alright there's more to life than counting every end

Chorus:

Oh my god I tried
I tried
I tried
Oh I tried
But leaving now ain't got a thing to do with pride

Bridge:

You know you can't pretend when feelings end unless truth becomes denial
It's senseless to stay for convenience sake and time

Chorus:

Oh my god I tried
How I tried
How I tried
Oh I tried
But leaving now ain't got a thing to do with pride
