Tim Be Told

The chords might be wrong but you can figure it out if it is :)
It s also a half-step down

Verse 1:

C#m  E          A          E
We are slaves to these age-old afflictions
A                  B                  A          E
Fighting for control  till we fell too far
C#m          B          A          E
Pursue desire, ignore our convictions
A                  B                  A          E
Only wretched souls beneath the weeping stars

Pre-Chorus 1:

C#m  E          A          E
We are calling out in the thick of the war
          C#m  E          A                  B
I am standing down to fight for something more
          C#m          E                  A          B
Would we cease these battles, let this love resound
C#m          B                  A          E
Still too hard to find our common ground

Chorus:

C#m          B  E          A
There s a fire that stays bold and courageous
          C#m          B          E
There s a light to light the way
          C#m          B  E          A
There s a fire that stays bold and courageous
          C#m          B          E
There s a light to light the way

Verse 2:

C#m  E          A          E
And we try so hard to heal our diseases
A                  B                  A          E
We break to pieces when our hope has failed
          C#m          B  A          E
Some will live or die without a reason
A                  B                  A          E

Such are the seasons, still our faith prevails

Pre-Chorus 2:

C#m        E        A        E
We are lost and found and beg to be restored
C#m        E        A        B
We keep falling down, harder than before
C#m        E        A        B
But love will find a way to give us strength to carry on
C#m        B        A        E
Sorrow for now, but someday soon be gone

Chorus

Verse 3:

C#m        E        A        E
So we come and go, it s still a mystery
A        B        A        E
And we ll be history long before we find
C#m        B        A        E
All the secrets since now and forever
A        B        A        E
We hope for better on the other side

Bridge:

C#m    A        E        B
God, hear the cries of your people! (x4)

Chorus
