Source: From Goodbye And Hello, 1967

Intro:
{Ab / / / / / Gb/Ab / / / / /}

     F#   E/F#
The singer cries for people s lies
Ab   Gb/Ab   Ab / / / / / Gb/Ab / / / / /
He will sing for the day to bring him night
     F#   E/F#
The circus burns in carnival flame
     Ab   Gb/Ab   Ab / / / / / Gb/Ab / / / / /
And for awhile you won t know my name at all
     Db   B   Gb   E   Ab / / / / / Gb/Ab / / / / /
But sing and dance and love for pennies and gold

The juggling clown smiles to me
And every frown we agree is glad
The nighttime comes to bring the bums
From Bowery heat to crimson streets of wine
But magic lands will nbever touch our sands

Your children smile in single file
They learn mistakes that others make
They see although they cannot know
The needs they ll need to have their greed grow wild
But dance and sing for others bring the shame
     Db   B   Gb   E   Ab / / / / / Gb/Ab / / / / /
And for awhile you won t know my name

{Ab / / / / / Gb/Ab / / / / /} (to fade)

No guitar on this song that I could hear, but this arrangement is sufficient for guitar. It s in 3/4 time, and it sounds all right if pluck the bass string on the first beat and strum the chord on beats
2 and 3. Enjoy (hopefully)...
