Strange Street Affair Under Blue
(Beckett/Buckley)

TIM BUCKLEY
From Tim Buckley, 1966

Verse 1:

F# Bm
Just for you with your open hands
E F# C# F#
Waiting for the touch of man
(F#) Bm
Clutching with your blackened gloves
E F# C# F#
You try to capture all the doves
F# C# F#
That flee into
Bm F#
The forest before you

Verse 2:

You wish to catch and cage me now
I wonder if you remember how
Hard it was to say the names
Of mirror dreams and cheated games
And on the wall
You framed your first lover

Verse 3:

Your form intrigues me with the glow
I ll remember you I know
Though I forgot to lock the chain
Around you with a prayer for rain
To bring the call
To drive you back into my bed

C#

She waits

C#

You d be touched if you would touch

C#

But you only reach and taunt

Bm

Will my taste stay grey and blue

F#

If I try to turn from you

Listen to the song to find out how it goes.

The intro is just electric guitars over a G chord.

I could have tabbed it, but, oh well...
