Verse 2: (chords same as verse 1)
You walk on water, searching the East
The souls of the masses pass at your feet
Looking up at you tears in their eyes
Fathers of fathers of fathers gone by

Walk me down old main street
Ride me down rusty rails
Fields full of summer wheat
Peppered with rounded bales
Steeple where church bells ring
Lighthouses by the sea
Reach out through gathered storms

Faithfully comfort me
