

Ghost Town Train
Tim McGraw

A: x02220

Bm7: x24232

C#m: x46654

E (you can play it normally but this sounds more like the original): x79997

Intro (the chords in brackets are optional, and if you play them, you only strum them once before changing chords):

A (Bm7) C#m (E) Bm7 (C#m Bm7) Repeat

A C#m
If I could I would rewind the times she cried
Bm7
I just turned around and walked away
A
Wish there was a switch I could give
C#m Bm7
Then she d love me like she loved me yesterday
A
What I d give to hold her in my arms
C#m Bm7
Feel her heart and wipe her tears right off her face
A
That s just plain foolishness
C#m Bm7
Truth is life just doesn t ever work that way

CHORUS:

A
She s gone
(Bm7) C#m (E) Bm7
Oh no, oh no
A
My baby s gone
(Bm7) C#m (E) Bm7
Oh no, oh no

The morning sun stills the stars
Shines her eyes and mine are laughing once again
Her long hair flowing
I m there holding her and hoping that this feeling never ends
but it s just a dream inside my head
Gone like the wind just like a child s red balloon
Floating up into the sky so high
And disappearing out into the wild blue

CHORUS:

She s gone.

Oh no, oh no

My baby s gone

Oh no, oh no

D

She s a ghost town train,

A

A tear drop in the rain

C#m

Oh no
