Bm - A - G x2

I didn't come to change your past
To cut us in to equal halves
To mold you in to someone new
Who thinks like I do

I didn't come to take control

To eat your heart out, kill your soul
I didn't come to change your mind
And turn your eyes blind

I've never asked you questions about tomorrow
Here and now is where I wanna stay
I've given you no rules or roads to follow
That's not why I'm sitting here today

Stranger, I just came to get to know you
Just to sit next to you for a bit
Stranger, I just came to get to know you
Wouldn't it be a shame if I never did?

Stranger, I just came to get to know you
See whatever hides under the lid
Stranger, I just came to get to know you
Wouldn't it be a shame if no-one never did?
