(saved, saved ooooooh woooo, ohh ohh,) (ooh oooh oh oooh ooh ooh) repeat for the rest of the song.

being an angel isnt easy, im sleeping rough on the streets for them again see no one told me they would tease me over again, again and again i tried to help with advices i have no home so the streets is where ill stand being a believer has its prices cause they came again, again and ill scream to them just because you cant feel it and you cant touch and can fight it off and just because you cant spend and you can see it ill be here til the faith is won you will be saved, saved (ooooooh woooo saved)
