

Never Leave You
Tinchy Stryder

Intro: F C Am G

I think it s just repeating the intro all the way through in the acoustic version?

(and i didn t write the lyrics!)

Lyrics;

Amelle:

Woah, woah, and i will never leave ya.

Woah, woah, and i will never leave ya.

Im still lovin you, like it was the first time.

Im still lovin you, like it was the first time.

Tinchy:

(Like the very first time)

Yo ive been there, right here in the most streets, late nights tryna write mums sayin go to sleep .

The king here raising, war within my own fleet,

dealing with the biggest dream

I thank the lord daily Im sincere and ive been from the start Im still,

Im strong,

and I have it in my heart so I dropped tears cause everythings changed reminiscing them days tryna turn the page.

Amelle:

Cause ive been around the world ive seen so many places,

livin the life ive worked so hard to make it,

trading the world for money, stars, and power, living my life at 100 miles an hour.

Im still loving you like it was the first time,

Im still loving you like it was the first time.

Woah, woah, and I will never leave ya.

Woah, woah, and I will never leave ya.

Tinchy:

You must be joking,

dont tell me that its over from driving the scene forward

I am a shofer its open so can we all enter tired of being in the back now

Im center were chosen but there telling us were still in there all we wanna do is open doors man hear me out were frozen cause they left us in the cold only right up to my chance now we bringing it home

Amelle:

Cause I been around the world I seen so many places living the life iv worked so hard to make it
