it was nothing but a quick think kids games, kiss chase, just a quick fling now im hoping you never go missing now im telling you, you can hold this ring, watch how it glistens it was done as quick as the wind blows didnt think i would ever be involved so i even wrote a song called dont go now its just you and me on a love row dappy like dino us two tip toes duck dive get low and now i care less about who knows now we re deep in way past intro dappy explain yo

[BRIDGE][DAPPY]

see never did i think a boy like me would be in need when all i really wanted was to have some fun now im losing my head, im telling you one thing you re number one

[CHORUS]

see i don t understand how you re number one when it was just a fling before now, you re the one see all i did was blink twice, from my homie to my only it was like games jokes laughter live for the moment, left it all open and now im stating, see i never saw this in my daydream its really you that im fully rating and the days here no more waiting pay it all wise to the smart man raised him i was so hurt, pain, aching on the wrong path then a good girl saved him that s why im letting her know she s amazing
