Country Comes To Town
Toby Keith

intro is questionable as I only hear this on the radio.

```
E    D     C G     A
```

```
A                                              E
```
Well the weatherman said it might storm

today
```
G                                 A                        I
```
gotta hit the field gotta bail some hay
```
A                             E
```
And I can t let it rain on my Daddy s farm
```
        G                        A
```
Til I get it all stacked up high in the barn
```
A
```
And I m gonna call my baby she s been
```
E
```
waitin on me
```
        G                        A
```
She lives downtown on Sycamore street
```
```
And the wheels on the black top a startin
```
```
to whine
```
      G                                A
```
As I pass that Oklahoma City limit sign

chorus:
```
A                      E
```
I m a hayseed and a plow boy
```
       D                 A
```
I m a farm kid and a cowboy
```
A                        E
```
I m a roughneck Daddy was a roughneck
```
G
```
too
```
A                        E
```
I run around with hillbilly girls
```
D                              A
```
The weekend sits on my hillbilly world
```
B
```
You better be ready when the Sun goes
```
```
down
```
                 G                        A
```
That s when country comes to town

```
Ggggg C A

verse 2:
A                                               E
Daddy said child you better leave him be
            G                                   A
Well I don t like him and he sure don t like me

A                                               E
Mamma just says ya ll have a little fun
                                        G
Ain t doin  nothin  me and Pappa ain t done
A                                   E
Open up the door to my pick-up truck
                G                           A
And my baby jumps in and she fires it up
A                                               E
And she gives me a kiss as I crawl in
                    G                               A
We ve been waitin  all week for a weekend

```
