

Lost You Anyway
Toby Keith

D G
Maybe you were right, maybe I could have changed
D C
Sitin here alone tonight thinkin bout a lot of things
D A
What s a man to say when all the questions start
G A B
Hell, I know deep down inside my broken heart

(Chorus)

E
Could ve tried just a little bit harder
G#m
Kissed you just a little bit sweeter
A
Held on just a little bit longer
Am
Dug down just a little bit deeper
E
Let the world revolve around you
G#m
And given you the stars above
A
Loved you just enough to make you stay
Am
And Iâ€™d have lost you anyway

E A
I hate it when itâ€™s like this, baby itâ€™s like that now
E D
Nothing I can say to you, you even care to talk about E B
How you gonna dress it up, wrap it in a pretty bow
A B C#
When itâ€™s gone, itâ€™s gone for good, baby at least I know

(Chorus)

F#
Could ve tried just a little bit harder
Bbm
Kissed you just a little bit sweeter
B
Held on just a little bit longer
Bm
Dug down just a little bit deeper
F#
Let the world revolve around you

Bbm

And given you the stars above

B

Loved you just enough to make you stay

Bm

And Iâ€™d have lost you anyway

F#

Let the world revolve around you

Bbm

And given you the stars above

B

Loved you just enough to make you stay

Bm

And Iâ€™d lost you anyway
