

The Taliban Song
Toby Keith

This song is pretty simple

Intro: G D C D G D C D G D C D G D C D

G D C
I m just a middle-aged middle-eastern camel-herdin man
D G D
I got a little two-bedroom cave here in North Afganistan
C D
Things used to be real nice and they got out of hand
G
Since they moved in
D C
They call themselves the Taliban
D
Oooh, oooh the Taliban Baby
G D
Now i ain t seen my wife s face since they came here
C D
They make her wear a scarf over her head
G D
That covers her from ear to ear
C D
She loves the desert and the hot white sand
G
But man she s just like me
D C
No she can t stand, The Taliban
D
Oooh, oooh the Taliban Baby

chorus:

D G C
But you know someday soon wer e both gonna saddle up
D
And it l be ride camel ride
G D
My old lady she ll be here with me
C
just smilin right by my side
D G
We should do just fine around Palestine
D
Or maybe Turkmenistan
C D
We ll bid a fair adieu and flip the finger to
G
The taliban

verse 2:

G D
Now they attacked New York City
C D
Cause they thought they could win
G D
Said they would stand and fight until the very bloody end
C D G
Mr. Bush got on the phone with Iraq and Iran and said
D C D
Now you son-of-bches ypu better not be doing any buisiness

With the Taliban
G D C
So we prayed to Allah with all of our might
D G
Until those big U.S. Jets came flying in one night
D C
And they dropped little bombs all over their holy land
D G D
Man you should have seen them run like rabbits they ran
C
The Taliban
