Tryin to matter, tryin to matter

We ve come a long way so don t forget
Let s don t throw our hands up yet
We ve still got time to change our mind
Honey let s give it our best tonight

If we still ain't got it right
We can always, always say goodbye
Somewhere I guess we let go and lost a little ground
One solitary heartbeat can turn this thing around

Chorus

We might go down cryin
At least wour love will die tryin
Tryin to matter, tryin to matter
