

Where You Gonna Go?

Toby Keith

***CAPO 2*** ( A )

intro: G

verse 1:

G

June fell for Johnny on the fourth of July

As the fireworks popped in the summer sky

Am

With a spark in her eye she just sat there and stared

C

D

As his face lit up to the rockets red glare

G

And by September she had asked him for a wedding band

How could she know he was a ramblin man

Am

He walked out the door in the dead of the night

C

D

And a sleepy voice whispered, as he turned out the light

Refrão -----

G

Am

She said: Where you gonna go, what you gonna do when you get there?

D

G

Am - D7

Who you gonna call when your road runs out at the sea?

G

C

Am

Oh you re never gonna find someone who loves you like I do.

D

G

If you get tired of runnin you can turn around and walk back to me.

-----

verse 2:

G

He called her up to say he missed her a lot

The Texas pan-handle was as far as he got

Am

He d run outta money, he d run outta luck

C

D

He d run outta gas in his pick-up truck

G

Hitch a ride catch a train or a greyhound bus

Cause there s a baby on the way and that makes three of us
Am
And I need you here beside me I can t go it alone
C D
She told him one more time as she hung up the phone

Refrão -----

G
Am
Sayin : Where you gonna go, what you gonna do when you get there?
D
G Am - D7
Who you gonna call when your road runs out at the sea?
G C Am
You know you re never gonna find someone who loves you like I do.
D
G
When you get tired of runnin you can turn around and walk back to me.
-----

bridge:

Bm C
The years just seemed to roll on by them
G D
She missed him more and more every day
Bm G
That boy grew up to look and act just like him
Am D D (((RING OUT)))
And she knew someday soon he d be old enough to fly away (And she d say)

Chorus: ((( RHYTHM GUITAR ONLY )))

G
Am
Baby where you gonna go, what you gonna do when you get there?
D
G ((( BAND IN ))) Am - D7
Who you gonna call when your road runs out at the sea?
G
C Am
You know you re never gonna find someone who loves you like I do.
D
G
When you get tired of runnin you can turn around and walk back to me.
C D
G
If you ever get tired of runnin ... turn around and walk back to me.