

Lovers In Our Heads

Todd Agnew

[Intro]

C Am (x2)

[Verse 1]

C

Mary s driving home again, she s crying again

F

Johnny left her for another girl

C

She s embarrassed by her loneliness and haunted by her shame

F

Everyone s reacting just the same

C Dm C

As she feared they would

[Chorus]

F

G

Are we more concerned with the fruit of another

C G Am

Never noticing our own barren branches?

F

G

Are we more consumed with casting stones at each other

C E Am

While ignoring the lovers in our beds?

C G C Am

Our own beds in our heads

[Verse 2]

C

Mary s driving home again, turns on the radio

F

Cause no one s writing songs about divorce

C

She could use a verse or two

Anything that brings just a few

F

Moments of light on the middle of this darkness

[Chorus]

F

G

Are we more concerned with the fruit of another

C G Am

Never noticing our own barren branches?

F

G

Are we more consumed with casting stones at each other

C E Am

While ignoring the lovers in our beds?

C G

Our own heads

[Bridge]

C G D

God hears her cries

Dm E F

As her tears fall rivaling the grains of sand

E D

We have His heart

Dm E F

What is keeping us from being His hands?

C

His hands

Am F7 Em C Dm

Oh oh

[Outro]

C

Mary s driving home again, turns off the radio

F Fm F

Cause no one s writing songs about divorce... yet

C Am (x12)
