verse 2:

A young girl in an old house, 3 kids and another on the way
She s in desperate need of some new clothes
But I keep my old ones and tell her I ll pray for her

But your heart breaks for those kids
And that child of a mom who s one of your own When a few gifts and a little time Is another crown I could lay at the feet of your throne

th-th-th-that s all folks
