Cheatham Street Warehouse T. Snider

INTRO: G C G C D

G Am

Wakin up late in the afternoon

C

Old piano playin just outta tuness

 $D \mid \mid$

Buzz of the heat thru the telephone line-i

G

Some kind of song bout a bottle of wine

G

And I knew it was you by the sound of your feet

Am

Pushin the pedals and keepin the beat

We re a million miles away from those days now

CHORUS:

. I

You can t get away from me

G C

You can t get me wrong

C E

I know how to keep you here

G

Where you know you belong

D

In a song

Cheatham Street Warehouse honky-tonk song
The kind Billy Joe just can t get wrong
I m gonna carve my name in the bar
Hope that you can hear it wherever you are
And wherever you are I ll be hopin you know
Wherever I am I ll be missin you so
No longer a million miles away from anything

CHORUS

SOLO

Workin on the last few lines last night
Kinda found a way to make it end all right
Telephone rings, it was you
You asked if I was workin on anything new
I didn t have the heart to tell you about
The one thing I m finishing up right now
No longer a million miles away from anything

CHORUS
