

Positively Negative

Todd Snider

Intro: B > D > A > B

B                    D                    A                    B
You are the worst news that I have ever heard

B                    D                    A                    B
You lie so confidently

B                    D                    A                    B
I ll sit and listen but I won t believe a word

B                    D                    A                    B
You ll never get the best of me

B                    D                    A                    B
Your boy collection waits, patiently and nice

B                    D                    A                    B
You love them so transparently

B                    D                    A                    B
I ll let you stay here but remember this advice

B                    D                    A                    B
You met your match when you met me

G                    A                    B
If you think your jaded now

G                    A                    B
Wait till you see the rest of me

G                    A
Come over here tonight

D                    A                    B                    G                    A                    B
And I will let you treat me like the victim I m not gonna be

( Bridge: G > A > B )

B                    D                    A                    B
You called this morning and you said that you were home

B                    D                    A                    B
My phone has caller ID

B                    D                    A                    B
Girl I don t care if your together or alone

B                    D                    A                    B
You ll never get the best of me

G                    A                    B
If you think your jaded now

G                    A                    B
Wait till you ve seen the rest of me

G                    A
Come over here tonight

D            A            B                            G            A            B
And I will let you treat me like the victim I m not gonna be

D A            B                            D A            B
I see right through you, I see right through you

G
Your victim I m not going be, oh

( Solo:    B            >    D            >    A            >    B )

B                            D                            A                            B
You are the worst news that I have ever heard

B                            D                            A            B
You lie so confidently

B                            D                            A                            B
I ll sit and listen but I won t believe a word

B                            D                            A            B
You ll never get the best of me

B                            D                            A            B
You ll never get the best of me

B                            D                            A            B
You ll never get the best of me

B                            D                            A            B
You ll never get the best of me

( Ending:    G            >    A            >    B    x2 )